

Born in Milan in 1985, Chiara graduated in law from Milan's Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in 2010, after having spent a year studying international and EU law at Katholieke Universiteit in Leuven (Belgium), as part of the Erasmus project.

Chiara began her training in 2010, was admitted to the Milan Bar in 2013. She deals mainly with industrial property matters.

She cooperates with the Chair of Private Law at the faculty of Economics, Milan-Bicocca University, as well as cooperating with the industrial law journal Rivista di Diritto Industriale.

Chiara has a good working knowledge of English.